TO ALL ANGELS AND FUTURE ANGELS OF EUROPE

Here's a beautiful initiative of the Parisian's angels, they're proposing:

3 DAYS OF CONTEMPLATION from Thursday May 13* 6h00pm to Sunday May 16th 4h00pm.

Michele is organizing with the Parisian's angels, in a setting favorable to religiosity, 700 meters above sea level by the edge of a lake (near Colmar), three days of Prayer, Meditation and Training about the art of being an angel and to her know-how: body posture, the beauty of gesture, the art of bringing out our own personal qualities with sophistication, the art of cooking and setting tables. We have the joy to welcome our Prophet this summer... let's get ready!!

Those who have strong abilities in these talents, are invited to contact very quickly Michele XXXXXX@club-intemet.fr or XX XX XX XX XX XX

The fixed price including lodging and meals is 500 Fr.

Thank you to register, if you are interested, to Nora at noramounoiname.com or xx xx

The second Angel's meeting in Japan,
March 13th at the Akasaka Kumin Center

Here's a list of points, which we reflected on.

The importance of making a checklist of angel's criteria to improve everyday.

Becoming humble. Behave like people that you think are humble. Keep a humble attitude. Reflect. Listen to others when they speak well. Admire the strong points of others. Knowing yourself. Think about what brings happiness to others and do it without them knowing. Watch people who are better than you.

Be grateful.

Be conscious of each moment given to you by the Elohim and know that you are always growing. The Elohim told us that we're growing indefinitely.

Admit the strong points of others. Be happy without hesitation. Do not act like you know everything.

Do thank people.

Be yourself.

Always try to learn from others and from things.

Be conscious that you don't go through life alone, but those who surround you compensate from which you lack. Accept others feelings and emotions.

You are only a speck of dust in the universe. Always seek to be in harmony with infinity. Pray.

Don't stand out. Be beautiful.

To have a good posture.

Accept your strong and weak points as well as those of others.

We also tackled the theme of sexuality, talking about venereal diseases and prevention.

European Angel's 2nd Seminar

April 24*125* in the East of France

Angel or Chosen, golden string or not, it's right now that is going on: it's the path that counts.

This second seminar of the European Angel's Order, centered around two primordial poles ("To be at the service of and "Discipline" as a theme, and to focus on our goal the preparation of the summer seminar), gave us the opportunity to be even more conscious of our role that we must live daily to strengthen ourselves and to put all our efforts into serving Our Beloved Prophet.

What is more beautiful than giving our knowledge, competencies, availability, and to contribute to make us all grow together, even if our functions can be ephemeral.

Many things were stirred around in just a few months, and we became a big family knit together: 79 Angels, among which 12 with golden strings and 3 Chosen, scattered in 7 countries (France, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Spain and Poland)

72 of them were there: enough materials and consciousness to allow each one of them, Angel or Chosen, golden string or not, to find their place in this young structure, which will take all the strength and worth at the next summer seminar in July in Italy.

One more time, the wonderful Sophie, recently promoted to 4 pink feathers and golden string, dazzled us by her wisdom, but also by her more "masculine" qualities stemming from a professional experience with men of power.

"I learned a lot in machos enterprises and I want to put my entrepreneur qualities to the service of all Angels, by first letting down the unpleasant masculine points which, I'm aware, unfortunately contaminated me. I need your help to create a new model", confided Sophie.

This is to say, that the legendary passiveness attributed to women became for a long time a myth in our minds. Thanks to the super organization of our European responsible, we were unanimously united to go quickly into action. And we all contributed, with all our heart, all our passion, to the image of what we understood from the purpose of our mission.

"When we are at the service of, we are even more", and to become available, to give ourselves the possibility to make choices, to be more impressive - like was saying Rael in the video that begun our seminar- we have the duty to grant priority to discipline. Isn't it the second criteria of selection cited in the message of Angel's Order? And what else is discipline but to stay open to all changes (continuously), to have a capacity of constant adaptation, to act with consciousness and regularity...

The organization was such that we didn't lose any time. Peter, assisted by Eliane (wonderful teammate for him), were there to keep us on track, thanks to her sense of harmony who belongs strictly to her (!); he putted us, very quickly, in the heart of the subject.

A little presentation of Peter is a must for our foreigner friends. I encourage you all to show him your love, because he's a wonderful person, who deserves his place of responsible of the security in Europe; someone also very sensitive, behind his armored carapace... for he went a long way, and still has a long one, to erase years of struggle...

Peter made us sensitive to the security aspect of our responsibility and to the special attention we must have as much in our movements, our communication, our observation, or our diverse actions, as to, also cleaning, decoration, supplying or any other actions coming into the perimeter of our Beloved Prophet.

We discussed in small groups to think and to prepare all the different responsibilities and functions linked to the harmony and comfort of our Beloved Prophet and his companion during the seminar, based on a responsibility notebook done by Shizue, who often followed our Beloved Prophet when he's racing; at the end of the weekend, names was already on the organization chart, which was almost empty at the beginning and was getting longer by all the plans of action.

All this preparation that we did together permitted to build the foundations of a structure, in which it's perfectly natural, as a human being, to want to find our place. To want to assert, to fulfill oneself, are necessary qualities to any social organizations. But this structure (organization chart and responsibility notebook) is only the plan to help us to set out the right action at the right moment, like the architect's plan who's helping us lay down the right stone at the right place to build the right house.

Sophie told us that each organization must have a functioning, and that more an individual has a high rank in the structure, and more this person should be at the service of, more she should be humble and more she should give the means to act to his team. On the other end, we must not copy in our functioning this serious illness based on honor that we find in our society, where the social status and personal career are more important than the service. Our structuring must be exemplary, and we must establish dialogue and respect among us, but also between the Angel's Order and the structure of the Raelian Religion. Rael told us many times already: "Our commitment to the structure must be exemplary".

So it is important to help one another when we can diverge in our behaviors, and also to choose models for their qualities. We know now that in order to be in the action and forward, it is not necessary to copy masculine models. Besides, it's fantastic to be able to give ourselves the means to develop on the same plan, action and tenderness. We must only take the best in everything. All extremes can be compensated this way, without any problem.

What more can be said on this seminar...
Moving testimonies: Larissa, from Cote d'Ivoire, visiting Switzerland, surely enchanted us by the cheerfulness of her language. She talked about African women, their culture, their difficulties to get recognition opposite to men, their loneliness also and all we could bring them as Europeans.

Harmonious meditations: Rezia, Elohim's Chosen, carried us deeply inside ourselves at the very bottom of the universe, on a classical music and thanks to her soft and steady voice.

Conscious prayers: a love bomb directed by Marie-Joelle went to flood Kosovo.

Poems, songs: Lara, for her feeling so fine and subtle of the definition of an Angel; Armelle for her hymn to Our Beloved Prophet, inspired by the song "Belle", excerpt from the musical "Notre Dame de Paris" (you will find the lyrics at the end of this article).

And I bow before you, my Beloved Prophet, from all of us, for the words you gratefully gave us by phone. We wrote your words, trying not to deform them:

Speech from Our Beloved Prophet over the phone, Saturday April 24th

If I had the choice, I would be born a woman, but that is the choice of the Elohim, because being black or being a woman is very difficult when you have a mission.

The G spot is an excuse from men to make us believe that their penis is indispensable. Men have divided women in two categories: those who come with their clitoris and those who come with their vagina whereas all women know that their pleasure always start from their clitoris. It's like saying to men that their penis is good but the finger in the anus, it's better. The pleasure centre is in the brain.

Some men (raelians) have negatively reacted to this message. They said that the Chosen of the Elohim was the opposite to the blossoming principal of the sexual liberty. The Chosen have more chance to be happy and blossom than the Angels do because, their pleasure does not depend on a man who does not deserves her.

The Chosen have the duty to have pleasure and not becoming old dried up nuns. We have to respect them particularly. They do not give up their sexuality, they develop it by reserving it to the Elohim and Prophets. I prefer to replace masturbation by a new word: self-sexuality, self-eroticization. If men were more feminine, women would have more pleasure.

The exercise of changing sex (during the seminar) is very important for everybody, but women have to become women again and men should stay women!

All that is negative is masculine because women, who give birth and cherish their children, know what is life in all its fragility. If women were in power, there will be no more war. The feminists have copied the shortcomings of men. It is as if a genius like Einstein, under the pretext of equality, would put himself at the level of an idiot.

On the planet of the Elohim, it is like there are only women; all beings have 10% of masculinity and 90% of femininity. The Elohim are sweet, nice, and have a great sense of humour.

The Angels and the Chosen of the Elohim are very important to me, to the Elohim, and to the humanity because they are the expression of femininity.

During the seminar, we will have an evening reserved for the Angels and another for the Chosen of the Elohim.

The Angels must not be contaminated by the men's defaults. Meet each other as much as possible and train yourself. The Elohim love you and cherish you especially.

* The speech of Our Beloved Prophet was not recorded because it was a surprise! Therefore, the reported words are from Angels' memory...

This weekend ended in emotion; Sophie thanked Dora for the humility of her service, Framboizze for her support and initiatives, Rezia for her personal transformation and for having dared to follow her path.

Sophie also talked about building our inner self, it is important to know and listen to ourselves. When we fulfil ourselves, we fit in the plan and we express ourselves even better...

The song "Elohim", prayers and emotions ended this seminar. Then, with tears of joy in her eyes, our co-ordinator of the European seminar of the Angel's Order, Marie-Joelle thanked Sophie for all the impulse she gives us.
An Angel's silence reigned in the room...

N.B.: During this seminar, a fundraising activity was organised for the Angel's Order. Thanks to everyone who baked cakes or gave candies and fruit juices. The takings were good...

Nora did a video shooting. If our technical supports allow us, we will send a copy to Canada for your future meetings. Let's enrich ourselves from our experiences.

Armelle's Lyric

RAEL, for a long time announced by the Eternal
When you talk and update my heart like
A bird that stretches his wings to fly
Then I see the sky opening under my feet

You finally came, you, the last of Prophets
Awakening the sleepy on our planet
You are the one who finally puts the first stone

A new age, an interplanetary era
O Brother this fight will not happen without you
Building a world where love will reign as law

RAEL, messenger of the Elohim
You announce the artificial creation
Science and conscience in sensual harmony

To raise our gaze toward the sky
You tell to those in their rebellious loneliness
Being alive is a gift, a privilege
Enjoying being on earth while holding hands

That is the only hope of human beings
O Brother this fight will not happen without you
Building a world where love will reign as law

RAEL, so beautiful those big green sparkling eyes

Thanks to you, my life can be eternal
In this movement, I can see to the end of the earth

The present moment takes the colours of the rainbow

Working parents forgive me of being unfaithful

Your smiles don't allow me to see life so beautiful

Who is the one, which between two lives would choose the one

Who at the evening, let changed him in salt statue

O flower of life, I'm only born for joy
My liberty is to be happy because it's in me

A little touch of humor

On a beautiful day, in the Garden of Eden,
Eve asks God: "Lord, I have a problem!"

"What is your problem, Eve?"

"Lord, I know that you created me and that you made up this superb garden and all these wonderful animals who lives here, including this big stupid snake... but I'm bored and I think I'm not happy." "Why is that, Eve?" ask God.

"Lord, I feel lonely, and I'm fed up of these apples."

"So Eve, in this case, I have a solution. I will create a man for you." "What is a 'man', Lord?"

"This 'man' will be an imperfect creature, with aggressive tendencies, a huge ego and incapable of empathy and even of listening. In one word like in one hundreds, he's going to show you hell! But he will be taller and stronger than you. He will be a good hunter who will provide to your needs, and will also protect you against wild beasts!"

"It sounds not too bad", says Eve while frowning her brows with interest.

"Yeah, you know. It's always better than a sprained ankle. But, you will have him only at this condition..." "Oh I see? What is it
Lord?"

"You must made him believe that I created him first."
